Color Use & Palettes

Landscape | A mixture of the mundane and the sporadic, showcasing the clashing of worlds this game entertains.

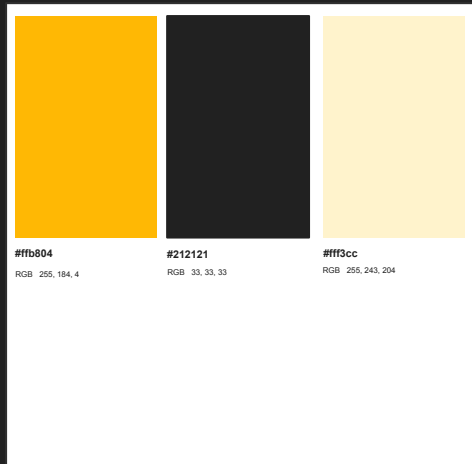

Protagonist | her main function is to be the protector of this realm, so she will resemble everything the boss isn't.

Boss | since her primary function is sucking the color out of the game, she's a monotone woman.

(rough concepts ; variations of the palettes may be used at best convenience)

Color Use & Palettes

UI Elements | since gameplay feedback needs to be clear and readable, bright yellow is used for interactive elements (such as trajectory and health bars) to ensure visibility, while dark outlines are applied to text boxes to create contrast against the colorful background.

Font ♥ Use

Griffy Font ; carries a whimsical and old-age vibe that fits the game well. The swirls and of the letters are playful and creative, and feel like a quirky touch that melts well with the game theme of creativity prevailing.
